The City of Tempe has a diverse employment base that provides jobs for Tempe residents and Valley residents. Findings from the 1990 Census indicated that more people work in Tempe than live in Tempe. In 1990, 97,256 people worked in Tempe of which 78,616 (81%) lived in Tempe. Final numbers from the 1995 Employment Survey places Tempe second in Maricopa County with 140,185 jobs produced; Phoenix was first with 672,240. The 1995 Survey confirms estimates from the 1990 Census that Tempe could employ its entire labor force within its boundaries. At the end of December 1999, Tempe's employed labor force was 114,871.

Type of Employment	Jobs by Place of Work 1995 Survey	Land Use	Number of Jobs Per Acre
